Flowers - this week the flowers have been arranged by Lorraine Payne, for Margaret Livingstone. If you know of anyone who might benefit from our flowers, please inform either Lorraine, Margaret or a steward. This may be due to illness, bereavement, or maybe having something to celebrate. Mary

We share with you the very sad news that Muriel Finlay and Francis Ball have died. Funeral details will be shared when known. Please remember their families in your prayers. Stewards

It is our church's turn to provide all the food which will be given out on the night of Thursday 20 November. The Filling Station (Feeding the Hungry on the Streets) charity gives food at the point of need to all our friends who come along. They may have all sorts of problems - alcohol/drug/mental health/financial/homelessness. All are made welcome and there are agencies in attendance who may be able to help. Sandwiches/hot drinks (tea/coffee/hot chocolate and soup) plus hot dogs are given. Please, once again, could you help by giving financially, giving goodies - i.e. cakes, crisps, chocolate biscuits, biscuits. These can be put in the container in the porch at church or brought to the Tuesday Morning Pop-In. Many thanks for all that has been given in the past and for your continued support of this very worthwhile project. Lois

Mission - on Friday 28 November from 5.30pm, we are, with St. Barts Church, manning a stall in the High Street at our town's Christmas Festival, where we will be giving out leaflets detailing our Christmas services. Speak to a steward if you can come along and tell folk about our church and services. Gillian

Vibrato String Quartet Christmas Coffee Morning at RWBMC on Saturday 6 December 10am-12pm - see poster for details. Alison

Nativity Messy Church style - December 7 (4pm - 5.30pm approx.) - we are looking forward to sharing the Christmas story with local families again this year. We will be offering Nativity themed crafts, an interactive Pop-Up Nativity and a finger food buffet. There is a list displayed in Hillside Hall where you can sign up to offer help. We will need help with preparing resources, setting up and clearing away, welcoming, befriending, taking part in the Pop-Up Nativity and laying on the buffet. If you are unable to help practically, please pray for our Nativity community, for hearts and minds open to welcome Jesus. Thank you. Jane

If you have an item, please contact Mary on notices@rwbmc.co.uk by the preceding Tuesday evening
